

Hall Witness Camera Shy

Boo! Hoo! We Don't Wanna Go to Jail

PAPAL LEGATE EXPELLED. Mgr. Tito Crespi, papal delegate to Mexico, recently evicted under the government anti-clerical laws, stopped to visit his cousin, Frank Zunin at Lyndhurst, N. J., before returning to Rome. (Photo Graphic.)

WHO WANTS TO BUY? Jack Dempsey (above) is selling real estate in his spare moments these days. And the moments will be "spare" if Jack isn't better received than he was when introduced at the Garden last night. (Photo Graphic.)

LOSES NOSE. When the ancient gun, shown (above) with Sergt. Zimms and Detective Timmes, exploded, it tore the nose off Otto Kraft, 11, who "wanted to see how it worked." (Photo Graphic.)
